About Praia da Luz:

Praia da Luz is associated with a very cosmopolitan summer town, once a fishing village of great importance, especially between the 19th and 20th centuries. XIII and XVI. A cobbled promenade runs along the seafront, offering sunny terraces and lots of entertainment during the summer. Flanked by large palm trees, this road merges to the west with the walls of the fortress originally built to protect the Church of Light from attacks by pirates from North Africa.

Faro international airport is just an hour away via the A22 motorway.
